

Fig 2. Flowchart for evaluation of an incidentally detected mediastinal mass. (1) Localization most important for the differential diagnosis. (2) Consider benign, but may require resection if large and causing symptoms. (3) Modality depends on suspected etiology or malignancy potential.